Priceless words and heartfelt donation from the Special Yeagley Family

Dear Andrea,

Thank you for all of the updates of the "Happenings" at Little Star. Your vision & passion has grown into something truly amazing. We are honored to be able to help. All that you do is truly a giant bright light to so many. Sam will be 22 years old tomorrow so we have been following & watching Little Star grow and change for about 24 ^{1/2} yrs.

Thank you for all that you do and giving us the opportunity to be a part of it.

Love & Hugs
from
The Yeagleys (Nancy, Brian Sam & Eli)

"Little Eli" that you met years ago is now 19. He is spending the semester in Madrid. Total immersion. His host-family doesn't speak ANY English. He has 3 classes in Spanish & 2 in English. It's been his dream to do this, & he made it happen. He's having a blast - but I'm missing him like crazy. We were able to visit him & meet his host family. I love the Spanish people. So wonderful!

Sam will graduate in December and has a job in Willow's, CA. That will be hard for Mama too - but at least he'll be a short plane trip away.

Jovan's Art is titled, "Everything is Everywhere" Jovan further shares "This is me stating that kindness can come from anyone and from everywhere as long as it is done with love and from the heart."

Andrea,
 Hope this helps!
 You are amazing in what you do for all these kids! Andrea

Back when Andrea Jaeger and Andrea Leand were kids they were breaking records in women's professional tennis. A Pro Athlete remembers moments in a career as if they were yesterday. Humanitarians remembers people's accomplishments on and off the playing field and give support from their soul. Andrea Leand had a huge upset over Andrea Jaeger at one U.S. Open. Both Andrea's rather than spending their tennis dollars for only selfish reasons do their all to give back. When Andrea Leand is brought up to Andrea Jaeger, a big smile appears on Jaeger's face because victory came to children from both Andrea's knowing each other. Little Star Foundation has just celebrated the 2nd anniversary of a generous donation from Andrea Leand. Thank you Andrea Leand! You rock it on and off the tennis court!

On any given day Little Star has impacted the lives of children, families and communities in 38 states and 12 countries
